

The State Facilities

State Psychiatric Hospitals and Special Care Center

The Division's psychiatric hospitals and its specialty long-term care facility provide inpatient services to people with disabilities within the state. These facilities are accredited by the Joint Commission for Accreditation of Healthcare Organizations (JCAHO) and are certified by the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid (CMS).

- Broughton Hospital, Morganton
- Cherry Hospital, Goldsboro
- Dorothea Dix Hospital, Raleigh
- John Umstead Hospital, Butner
- N.C. Special Care Center, Wilson

Developmental Centers and Black Mountain Center

The four developmental centers are certified as Intermediate Care Facility/Mental Retardation (ICF/MR) level of care by CMS. Black Mountain Center is certified as a Nursing Facility level of care. The centers primarily serve adults with severe and profound mental retardation, many of whom have significant physical disabilities and/or medical fragility. Services provided by the centers include communication; recreational, occupational, and physical therapies; psychology; education; pharmacy; dietary; medical and advocacy. The centers are:

- Black Mountain Developmental Center, Black Mountain

- J. Iverson Riddle Developmental Center, Morganton
- O'Berry Developmental Center, Goldsboro
- Murdoch Developmental Center, Butner
- Caswell Developmental Center, Kinston

Alcohol and Drug Abuse Treatment Centers

The Alcohol and Drug Abuse treatment centers provide residential treatment designed to meet the needs of alcohol and other drug dependent citizens of North Carolina. These ADATCs are:

- Julian F. Keith ADATC, Black Mountain
- Walter B. Jones ADATC, Greenville
- R. J. Blackley ADATC, Butner

Residential Programs for Children

The Division's two residential programs for children are:

- Wright School, Durham
- Whitaker School, Butner

Wright School serves children ages 6-12, focusing on treatment needs of school age children from around the state. Wright School uses a re-education model that teaches children appropriate ways of interacting in their environment. Wright School provides a staff-secure setting for treatment and has a staff on duty 24 hours a day to ensure appropriate supervision.

Whitaker School is a residential treatment center located on the grounds of John Umstead Hospital for youth ages 12-17. It serves adolescents statewide using the re-education model. Children are encouraged to go home or to an alternative community placement on weekends. Whitaker is a locked, physically secure treatment setting with a staff on duty 24 hours a day to meet the needs of the children served.
